Wednesday, June 23, 2010 | Cog Hill Golf Club

#2 – Ravines - The "Ravines" is a sporty, championship course with tree lined-fairways, ravines, water, bunkers, and testing greens. In preparation for the 1997 U.S. Amateur three new holes, a par 3, par 4, and par 5 were constructed to create the present-day "U.S. Amateur" layout.

#4 – Dubsdread - Nationally ranked since it opened in 1964, Course #4 has acquired the nickname, "DUBSDREAD." A natural style championship golf course, DUBSDREAD places a demand on shot making by providing tight landing areas combined with heavily bunkered, large undulating greens.

Thursday, June 24, 2010 | Harborside International Golf Center

Located just 16 minutes from the downtown loop area, Harborside brings championship style links golf to Chicago's doorstep. No other course in the area can combine the rugged links exterior, with sculpted fairways and manicured greens that make Harborside the finest choice for locals and travelers to enjoy traditional links golf.
