

M-202: Course Discussion Questions

1. To avoid communication problems that result from cultural diversity among owners and staff members, community managers should:
2. List the appropriate means for a community manager to ensure that residents have access to him or her after normal business hours.
3. What is an effective strategy for handling public relations crises?
4. A rule violations letter must contain what elements?
5. List the steps of the Issues Management Process.