

M-204: Course Discussion Questions

1. What is necessary in order to amend an association's governing documents?
2. What are some issues likely to require a policy resolution, related to an association's governing documents?
3. Describe the differences between actual and potential conflicts of interest.
4. What are some factors that can affect the rule-making process for a community association?
5. If a case of alleged rule violation goes before the courts, what could weaken the Association's position?