

M-205: Course Discussion Questions

1. What should every known exposure be reviewed for?
2. Storing back-up computer files off site, using more than one bank for association accounts, and keeping a hard-to-replace mechanical part on hand are examples of the risk management technique named:
3. A comprehensive insurance request for proposal (RFP) benefits a community association by:
4. When insuring property, which method is most likely to provide the most favorable valuation provisions?
5. What is typically covered automatically as the primary insured on a Directors' and Officers' (D&O) liability insurance?