

M-206: Course Discussion Questions

1. An example of a mandatory line item in an association's budget is:
2. What factors would affect how much an owner in a community association is assessed?
3. What is the name of the financial report that is a summary of a community association's financial transactions during a given period of time?
4. If you wanted to further analyze the detailed transactions that include the items which caused the repairs category to be over budget, which other report would you review?
5. What are some of the association's obligations that should be reflected on its budget line item for landscaping in a year?