

Alabama Appoints Taskforce on Community Association Issues:

Inspired in part by the passage of legislation in Illinois to regulate community association managers, the Alabama Real Estate Commission has appointed a taskforce to examine two critical issues related to community associations: professional manager licensing and legal protections for homeowners. Working with CAI's Alabama Chapter, CAI has secured the appointment of Chapter President Elbert Boothby to the taskforce. Read CAI's letter here.