Earlier today, Apartment Investment and Management Company (Aimco) and Airbnb jointly announced the settlement of all their disputes and the dismissal of all litigation between them and issued the following statement:

"Apartment Investment and Management Company (Aimco) and Airbnb jointly announced today a settlement of all their disputes and the dismissal of all litigation between them. The parties believe the settlement is in both sides' best interests. Aimco believes that the parties' agreement provides Aimco with the ability to control short-term rental activity consistent with its contract and property rights. As part of the settlement, Aimco and Airbnb have agreed to meet to discuss opportunities in the multifamily housing industry."
