Sub: HOA/Condo Questions from Your Constituents? Connect with CAI at NCSL for Answers.

Dear >>>salutation<<<,

CAI is excited to connect with you at the National Conference of State Legislature's 50th Legislative Summit in Boston. We invite you and your staff to visit our team at booth 934. CAI will be there to answer any questions related to condominiums and homeowners associations.

For the 10th time in 17 years, 86% of the 77.1 million Americans living in homeowners associations, condominiums, and housing cooperatives say they're overwhelmingly satisfied in their communities. We want to hear from you on ways we can continue to help you and your constituents who live and work in condominiums, cooperatives, or homeowners associations. Please stop by for a local Cookie Monstah cookie and FREE community association resources for your office and constituents.

CAI RESOURCES FOR YOUR CONSTITUENTS

- NEWLY UPDATED* condo safety resources. CAI provides information and resources to help homeowners and board members understand structural integrity, maintenance, and reserves. Please share these resources with your constituents who are currently living in condominiums or townhome buildings. We continue to engage in conversations with our members, experts, and stakeholders in the community association industry to strengthen existing standards and public policy in these areas.
- Transparency within associations. Every community has its own history, personality, attributes and challenges, but all associations share common characteristics and core principles. Good associations preserve the character of their communities, protect property values, and meet the established expectations of homeowners. Great associations also cultivate a true sense of community, promote active homeowner involvement, and create a culture of informed consensus. Our good governance principles, ethical standards, and best practices lead to great communities.

CAI represents more than 77.1 million Americans who live and work in community associations. Due to our diverse membership, we understand the varying perspectives of issues impacting residents living in homeowners associations and condominium communities. We look forward to serving as a resource for you and your staff during the upcoming legislative session.

To help support you, your colleagues, and your staff, we created a tailored resource page with data, statistics, and trends in the community association housing model including state laws, state-specific facts and figures, best practices, and more. Visit www.caionline.org/LegislatorCorner.

If you would like to schedule a specific time during the event to meet with our team, please contact me directly at pneseth@caionline.org.

We look forward to seeing you in Beantown!

Sincerely,

Phoebe E. Neseth, Esq.
