

Community Associations Institute (CAI)

“Taking Action” with CAI

By deepening your advocacy skills and reaching out to your legislators about issues and legislation affecting the community association industry, you can help community associations remain preferred places to live and work.

When an advocacy issue arises, CAI relies on our highly-engaged advocates across the United States to spread the word, activate their networks, and help us reach our goals.

Learn More

Email Your Elected Officials

Visit CAI's Take Action Center to see the ongoing campaigns at every level and respond to calls to action in your area. >> www.voterveice.net/CAI/home

Call Your Elected Officials

Check out CAI's guide and tips for more effective advocacy through telephone calls, emails, and social networking. >> caionline.org/phone-email-social

Amplify CAI Calls to Action

If an advocacy issue arises in your area and CAI asks for your support, mobilize to engage your personal network, spread the word about the call to action, and help us reach our collective goals!

Meet with Your Elected Officials (In-Person or Virtually)

Use CAI's Advocate's Guide to Personal Visits with Legislators to help make your advocacy visit a success. >> caionline.org/personalvisits

Submit Written Testimony on Legislation and/or Testify In-Person

Use CAI's Advocate's Guide to Written and Oral Testimony to get started crafting a compelling message. >> caionline.org/testimonyguide

Invite Elected Officials to Events in Your Community

Community events are a great opportunity for your state and federal elected officials to get to know their constituents, experience their local community spirit, and learn what issues are important to communities like yours. Check out CAI's Constituents in Your Communities campaign to learn more. >> caionline.org/CIYC

Attend a CAI Webinar

Contact government@caionline.org for information on upcoming events and trainings.

Attend a CAI Advocacy Day at Your State Capitol